$1,000 REWARD OFFERED BY THE PVUSD

Watsonville High School and Rolling Hills Middle School have received a number of bomb threats since September 11th. While we see these threats as being without credibility, the school district staff still must take precautions, including evacuating students from school for periods of time. This is a terrible disruption to the educational process and certainly affects the comfort of our students at each school.

In an attempt to stop the disruptive and irresponsible act of making bomb threats, the District is offering a $1,000 reward to any individual who provides information which leads to the successful prosecution of parties involved.

Anyone with information regarding these bomb threats should call the District office at 786-2135 or directly contact the Watsonville Police Department.
