CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE AT APTOS HIGH SCHOOL

On Friday approximately 200 students from Aptos High School conducted an act of Civil Disobedience resulting in the closure at Freedom Boulevard. Two students were arrested and released to their parents.

Dr. Mary Anne Mays, Superintendent, and Christine Amato-Quinn, Assistant Superintendent, North Zone, will be meeting on the campus in the school cafeteria with the student senate at 7:30 AM Monday morning.

School will be in session on Monday. All students are expected to be in attendance. Law enforcement has indicated that they will not permit any future action to cause the close of Freedom Boulevard.

Community members and parents who wish to contact Dr. Mays or Mrs. Amato-Quinn are encouraged to send a fax to the Superintendent's office at 761-6010, or call Ms. Amato-Quinn at 786-2395, or Dr. Mays at 786-2135.
