Pajaro Valley Unified School District's Board Introduces Administrative Appointments

Watsonville, CA. July 16, 2019 – The Board of Trustees of Pajaro Valley Unified School District is pleased to welcome the following administrators as approved at their July 10 meeting: Mr. Ivan Alcaraz as Principal for Rolling Hills Middle School and Ms. Marwa Yousofzoy as Coordinator of English Learner Programs to support the implementation of the new English Learner Master Plan.

Ivan Alcaraz, the new Principal of Rolling Hills Middle School, has been serving the students of Pajaro Valley since 2013 as an Intervention Counselor before becoming an Assistant Principal at Watsonville High School. Mr. Alcaraz is a local resident of Watsonville and a former student of PVUSD. He obtained his Bachelor of Arts in Business Management Economics from UCSC, his Masters in Education in Counseling and Student Personnel, Masters of Education in Administration and Supervision and is currently earning his Doctorate in Educational Leadership. We are proud to welcome this highly accomplished educator to his new administrative role.

Marwa Yousofzoy, Coordinator of English Learner Programs, has been serving students since 2007 as an elementary teacher in Gilroy Unified. She received her Bachelors in Liberal Studies, Masters in Education and Multiple Subject Teaching Credential from University of California, Riverside. She earned her administrative Service Credential from National University. Ms. Yousofzoy has currently been serving the students of Oak Grove School District as an Instructional Coach as well as a Curriculum Developer for the Silicon Valley Education Foundation. Ms. Yousofzoy brings a wealth of knowledge in providing professional development to teachers and administrators, developing curriculum focused on literacy and coordinated the alignment of curriculum to SBAC interim assessments. Welcome Ms. Yousofzoy to your new position and to our strong #OneTeam.
