PVUSD Announces Bradley Principal and Lead Behaviorist

Watsonville, CA, November 23, 2020 – The Pajaro Valley Unified School District welcomes Andrew Crocker-Donnelly as Principal for Bradley Elementary School and Heather Waltz as Lead Behaviorist supporting Special Services Department. The Board of Trustees approved these appointments at their most recent meeting.

Principal, Bradley Elementary, Andrew Crocker-Donnelly has been serving the students of Pajaro Valley since 2005 as a teacher at Ann Soldo Elementary and Academic Coordinator at Mintie White Elementary since 2016. He obtained his Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Masters in Education from UCSC and Administrative Credential from Concordia University. Bradley students and community will be served well by Mr. Crocker-Donnelly's fifteen years of elementary experience as well as district administrative experience. We are proud to welcome this highly accomplished educator to his new administrative role.

Ms. Heather Waltz's promotion to Lead Behaviorist will support the important work of Special Services Department. Ms. Waltz has served as a Behaviorist in the Special Education Department since 2016, providing support services to our special education students through skill building and intervention services. Ms. Waltz is a Certified Crisis Response Trainer providing valuable training to our teachers, instructional assistants and administrators. She received her Master of Arts degree in Counseling, Psychology, Marriage and Family Therapy from Santa Clara University, and is a Board Certified Behavior Analyst. She looks forward to continuing to serve our students in her new role. We are proud to introduce Ms. Waltz as Lead Behaviorist and wish her success in her new position.
